ABSINTHE

DISTILLERS OF

DEVIL'S BOTANY

MIX CREATIVELY, INSPIRE CREATIVITY

Devil's Botany is the UK's first Absinthe Distillery founded in London by Directors of The Last Tuesday Society: Allison Crawbuck & Rhys Everett. Distilled with a background in mixology, the Devil's Botany range has been expertly crafted to highlight absinthe's versatility in cocktails and complexity when served with a traditional fountain.

Once considered a muse for the great creative minds of the Belle Époque – Devil's Botany is calling on the next generations of absinthe drinkers.

Unleash your creative side with a serving style that is true to you.
